

Supplementary 2: framework of 17 categories

In your work with children and adolescents with cancer, which competences do you find important to:

1. Communicate interprofessional with colleagues
2. A good working environment

In your work with children and adolescents with cancer, what do you believe is important in the handling of:

3. Pain
4. Nausea and vomiting
5. Constipation
6. Acute life-threatening situations
7. Prescription of medicine
8. Administration of medicine

In your work with children and adolescents with cancer, which competences do you find important to:

9. Improve the quality of life for children and adolescents in the palliative and terminal phase
10. assist children and adolescents to maintain their normal life
11. assist children and adolescents to maintain their functions
12. assist children and adolescents to develop physically, mentally and socially

In your work with children and adolescents with cancer, which competences do you find important to:

13. Communicate with children and adolescents
14. Collaborate with children and adolescents
15. Involve the patient in your treatment and care
16. Communicate with parents and relatives to children and adolescents with cancer
17. Collaborate with parents and relatives to children and adolescents with cancer